INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Friday Evening, Nov. 23, 1866.

Our Western Counties.

The great impediment to the rapid increase of wealth in our Western counties is their inaccessibility to market. The Eastern and middle counties of the State, annually import hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of necessaries and luxuries from the North, which our own Western counties could supply in the greatest abundance, equal in quality and at a much cheaper rate, if they had quick and reasonably cheap transportation. Railroads are the only possible means which can be furnished them for this purpose.

Butter, cheese, beef, tallow, hides, honey, apples, Irish potatoes, onions, cabbages, chesnuts, flour and a variety of other articles are now produced in very great abundance. A little attention to the culture and manufacture of these articles, will enable our people in the West, to produce and keep them in as good style and preservation as they are now produced at the North. It is, therefore, of the highest importance, that railroad facilities should be afforded them as soon as possible.

But railroad transportation is not all. It is important if they have railroads, in order for them to compete with others in the markets, that the roads should so regulate their tariffs of freights, as that the cost of transportation shall not entirely put a stop to production.

It appears to us that many of our railroad managers do not sufficiently discriminate between the value and weight of articles. The weight of articles, of course, must as a general principle regulate the price of freight, but besides this general principle, regard should be had always, we think, to the value of the article. For instance, the charge on 100 lbs. of cotton, at present price, ought not to be less, indeed, ought to be much greater than on 100 lbs. of onions, potatoes or apples; otherwise, the culture of these necessary articles would be discouraged and prevented.

A commission house in this city called our attention to the following fact which illustrates our position: A gentleman in Catawba county having raised a large quantity of fine onions, forwarded fifteen bushels of this article to a commission house in this city to sell for him.—On their arrival, the railroad freight bill was presented and paid. The 15 bushels of onions will hardly bring more than $1,50 per bushel, or $22,50 for the whole. Now on these 15 bushels of onions, the freight from Newton, Catawba county to Salisbury, was only $1,90.—This we call a moderate charge. But the freight from Salisbury to Raleigh was $5,08!—We beg leave to ask the proper officers of the N. C. R. R. if this latter charge is not an error. If not, we can hardly hope to get any more onions from Catawba.

The Bertie Meeting.

We take pleasure to-day in laying before our readers, the proceedings of a meeting held recently in the County of Bertie, by the citizens generally, in order to invite agriculturalists from abroad to settle among them. The sentiments expressed by that meeting are similar to those of the people of every portion of the State. We have uttered this opinion time and again, and we are glad that the people make similar utterances throughout the State. No man, white or black, is liable to suffer in North Carolina for his political sentiments, or for his past course as a citizen in reference to the late war. Men holding adverse sentiments to the great majority of our people, who on set purpose labor to foment discord, and excite partizan feelings among us, are not so much esteemed we admit, but any quiet, ingenuous good citizen, no matter what his opinions, or where he came from, who pursues a respectable vocation, shares in the good feelings and courtesies of our people.

We repeat what we have often said, that Northern men pursuing an honest vocation, among us, are as safe in any portion of this State as in the North. Our laws protect all alike, and where men prove themselves to be worthy, good citizens, they are respected.

The Legislature.

To-day the standing committees of the Senate and some of those of the House were announced. Quite a number of bills were introduced in both Houses. The election of Comptroller has been kept off by the Senate, but we presume will be disposed of in a few days.

We are obliged to Col. Cowan, of the House, for the resolution ordering hereafter the printing of the Governor's message and Treasurer's report before the meeting of the General Assembly. This was a good move. We beg leave to suggest, that the same reason exists for the publication of the Comptroller's report, the report of the Insane Asylum and the Institution of the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, and indeed, all the regular reports which are to be submitted to the General Assembly, before the session commences.

Scarcely any thing would tend to facilitate legislation so much as this. All these important papers being ready and printed before the session begins, the committees could immediately begin their investigation as soon as appointed. Whereas, the printing of reports after the session opens, which make from 5 to 700 pages, and much of it rule and figure work, necessarily consumes much time and delays action. We hope the necessary action will be taken upon this subject.

Consolidation.

Our cotemporary the Wilmington Journal has a long leader in opposition to the proposition to consolidate the N. C., Atlantic and Western Extension Railroads. It intimates that the question will be considered at the proposed meeting of the stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, soon to meet in this city. We had heard no mention of that as one of the objects of the meeting, yet the subject may be considered.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FRIDAY MORNING, Nov. 23.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Leave of absence was granted Mr. Snead, Senator from Johnston, until Tuesday next.

The Speaker announced the following Committees:

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—One of those periodical simoons which sweep over nations, seems to have burst in its full fury upon the Northern section of this Union. France has had its Mississippi scheme, its revolution of '92; England its South Sea bubble; Germany its secret societies and Materialism, and the events of the passing year have shown, that the great North American Republic is not exempt from the national epidemics of the old world, which for a time overcome all principles and precedents, and leave right and wrong involved in inextricable confusion.

The recent elections have spoken to the world in a manner not to be misunderstood, and should the spirit of those elections and the principles they enunciate be taken as the settled policy of the people, we might well despair of republican institutions. True, however, to the Republican faith of our ancestors, we cannot but believe that the mass of the people mean well. They may be mistaken, they may be deceived, they may be misled by designing and unprincipled leaders; but sooner or later, the popular mind will discover the truth, and the great popular heart will throb in unison to the true principles of liberty and right. For the present, however, the will of the predominating section, and with that the policy of the Government, has been unmistakably settled. The only resource then for the South, is to develop her resources, encourage immigration and bide her time. Even should the Constitutional amendment be unlawfully adopted by excluding the vote of the "ten," by the next census, perhaps, it will cease to be injurious, and act against the States now most zealous in its adoption. The South owns more than one-half of the now settled territory; the climate is genial and the soil fertile. The wave of immigration will soon set in, and the little New England States just now so noisy, may find themselves shorn of those State rights which they are so willing now to ignore. They are treading on dangerous ground, for precedents in politics, as in law, are terrible things.

It is on dit that an agreement with the Juarez government has been made by which the States of Sonora, Chihuahua and Lower California are to be turned over to the United States for annexation. It is said that the mission of Gen. Sherman is for the purpose of settling preliminaries and merely precedes an army of occupation. Certain it is, that unusual movements of troops have lately taken place in that direction. Should these rumors prove true, it indicates that the President has adopted a policy, perhaps the only one, which will restore his popularity in the Northern States. The Northern mind over stimulated by the war and particularly its successful termination, is active, morbidly active, and must have something to feed upon. Any thing tending to the aggrandizement of the Republic is emphatically popular. Annexation of the Northern States of Mexico, while it would bring popularity to the administration, by turning public attention from issues on which it has already dwelt too long, would probably ensure the speedy admission of the excluded States. Viewed in this light, the measure would be a fine stroke of policy, but the ultimate effect of this vast increase of Territory, on the destinies of the Republic, is a question for the mature deliberation of the statesman and for time, which at last settles all questions from the minutest to the greatest,—The acquisition would indeed give us a shorter and more practicable route than any we now possess, to the Pacific. The shriek of the steam whistle which annihilates time and space may be allowed to compensate, in some degree, for the argument of those, if any, who may feel disposed to imitate the now annexationists of Polks administration.

The Capital has lately been enlivened by the presence of Parepa, the celebrated songtress, who is said to rival, if not surpass, Jenny Lind in her achievements.

Preparations are being made, at the Capitol, for the reception of the fortieth Congress, which is probably destined to be a memorable one in history, and whose first move on the board will be anxiously looked for by the whole American people.

REMARKABLE DEATH OF AN AGED COUPLE.—Sylvanus Hartshorn, Esq., one of the oldest, best known and most esteemed citizens of Norfolk, whose residence was on Bermuda street, was taken ill on yesterday morning, and without any alarming premonitory symptoms of dissolution, died in a fit of apoplexy.

His aged consort, with whom a few months ago he celebrated his golden wedding, overcome by the great calamity, was taken ill, and died within two hours of her husband, the victim of a nervous shock. Their souls are again united in stronger than matrimonial ties, in the realms of the blessed.—Norfolk Virginian of 20th.

"That glorious old patriot" (Brownlow.)—Standard.

"So far as Governors Hamilton and Brownlow are concerned, we esteem them the equals of Governors Sharkey and Perry in purity, integrity and patriotism."—Standard, Nov. 17th., 1866.

"We are quite content with our record"—(Quere—in '61-2 and 3?)—Ibidem.

In 1844, Wm. G. Brownlow, not then a Governor, was in the city of Raleigh; and, provoked by what he then saw in the Standard, published a letter in which he showed his estimation of its editor in tolerably energetic language.—After calling him various hard names—such as "that prince of hypocrites," "the notorious apostate of the Standard"—and characterising his paper as "the putrified sheet through the columns of which Billy Holden lies weekly." He thus closes his loving epistle:

"But who is Billy Holden that he should apply the epithets of "rowdy," "blackguard," &c., to honest and decent men? He is a third rate County Court Lawyer, who some short time ago wrote and spoke the high praises of Mr. Clay, Gov. Morehead and the Whig party generally; with a view to induce the Whigs to give him employment that he might avoid starvation. He is that same little wavering, breathing putrified monument of his own shame and disgrace, who was repulsed by the proprietor of the Star office, upon his application to become a partner in the concern!

He is that vain-glorious little creature, who, to gain notoriety, and at the same time make his bread and meat, wrote to the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, while a Senator in Congress, asking him to aid him in buying out the Star office, with a view to his starting a more efficient Whig press in Raleigh, and one that would handle the Locofoco's as they deserved to be handled! And last, though not least, he is the same depraved little political mendicant, who, making known his price to the Locofocos at Raleigh, has been bought and paid for, soul and body,—receipts in due form having passed between the "high contracting parties." In this contemptible little renegade is all want of principle brought to a focus. And if any responsible Whig or Democrat has ever known him to look an honest man in the face since his connexion with the Locofoco party and can name it appear, why, I will make a public acknowledgement to the man. He has the worst countenance of any man I saw in Raleigh. And if his countenance be a true index to his heart I would as soon suspect him of taking things without leave, as any man I have met with since I left Tennessee.

As it regards the self-styled Democratic party, both in North Carolina and elsewhere, I consider the mass of the common people as honest, as virtuous, and as patriotic, as those of any other party, and have so expressed myself on all occasions. But the leaders of that party, by whom I mean the Editors, orators and wire-workers, I regard as the most unmitigated association of villains now living, from Van Buren down even to Billy Holden."

WILLIAM G. BROWNLOW.
Editor of the Jonesboro' Whig.

RALEIGH, April 18th, 1864.

"I would not curse a dog so"—quoth mine uncle Toby. But Uncle Toby was wrong. This is not cursing, it is only a pleasant exhibition of those amenities which characterise gentlemen born to be great. It is only enacting the part of the impulsive Emerald Islander, who "Meets with his friend, and for love—knocks him down."

Some people might suppose that this mode of salutation is a little eccentric. By no means. It is usual among cultivated gentleman, who boast and have always boasted their "social position." They even take liberties with each other which are denied to the baser sort. These seeming curses are blessings in disguise. That "glorious old patriot," and that other one whom he delights to honor, now sleep together. Indeed, there are three delicious X. P. G's in the same family bed, lying spoon-fashion, congratulating each other that they have a "fixed place in history"—and that "it will always be known that Provisional Governors existed at one time in our system of Government, and who those Governors were." History will certainly remember Holden, Jack Hamilton and Brownlow. Each shall be called Governor "always"—and longer too. They have "as fixed a place in history as any." Sancho Panza shall never overshadow them—nor that other Governor, Beelzebub (so-called) who rules over a hotter region than San Salvador.—Some Governors there be who have attained a bad eminence, but they shall be all known in history.

The question so long debated, in what school our accomplished X. P. G. studied the graces, is now at rest. He has evidently drawn his polished shafts from the quiver of "that glorious old patriot." His knightly bearing towards his adversaries could have been acquired in no other school, and taught by no other master.—Both, master and man, are statesmen of refined sensibilities and gentlemanly mien. Both are brave, and were never known to run from danger. Both are models of gratitude and know experimentally, nothing of the "viper's tooth" or thankless child. Both are true as steal to their friends, who have given them brandy, or done other favors—and to the States who have given them birth and nurture. Both are scrupulously truthful, and never mistake coarse vituperation for argument. Both are aware that a good cause scorns to admit falsehood in its support—that like beauty, it

"Needs not the foreign aid of (such) ornament,
But is, when unadorned, adorned the most."

Both, being high-bred and chivalrous gentlemen, "sans feur et sans reproche," practice high courtesy to all adversaries, personal and political; secure themselves from contempt, they scorn to speak contemptuously of others who are less endowed with pre-eminent merits.—Having never sinned themselves, though they might cast stones at the frail ones, they forbear, and say gently, "go thy way and sin no more." Both are kind and conciliatory in their manners to an extreme—as X. P. G's of historic renown should always be. Having never been vipers in the bosom, nor snakes in the grass, they never talk about "scourging" their old friends and neighbors "with scorpions." They never talk about "biding their time," with an ominous, exultant shake of the head. They never "thank God that a day of reckoning is at hand," when their own kith and kin are to be made to bite the dust at their feet, and there shall be none to deliver. In fine, they twain are emphatically par nobile fratrum, loving "Arcades Ambo"—Siamese twins, held together in sympathetic union by that portion of their bodies where the loaves and fishes go, after they are swallowed.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly now in session in Memphis, on the 19th, the discussion of the relation of baptised children to discipline in the church was concluded, and the canon, as reported by the commissioners, was adopted. An important report, on beneficiary education, was presented by the chairman of the commitee appointed by the last general assembly. Carson's discipline, as far as chapter 9th, was adopted, with slight modifications.

SINGULAR CASE OF POISONING.—On one day last week several negro men, employed in the tobacco factory of Messrs. Keen & Hankins, of this place, poisoned themselves by drinking a preparation used to flavor tobacco, known as the oil of Mirbane. They, being ignorant of its poisonous quality, got to tasting pretty freely of it, and in a few hours every one was prostrated from its effects. Two of the men died, Jim Dodson and Jim Fells, one in an hour or two after taking the fluid, the other lingered some twenty-four hours. The rest of the men vomited quite freely and thus, throwing off the poison, recovered.

This flavoring, we learn, is quite extensively used by tobacco manufacturers. It is said to be made of oil of bitter almonds, angelica seed and other ingredients. The poisonous quality of the mixture is due to Prussic acid, derived from the almonds, which is known to be most deadly in its effects upon animal life.—Dan. Register.

In the interest of the millions who "chew" we beg the manufacturers to quit using this "perilous stuff."

RECEIPT OF COTTON BY THE ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD.—Some idea of the amount of cotton shipped from this port of late, may be gathered from the fact that since the new crop began to come in, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven bales of cotton have reached Newbern by the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad. What proportion of the entire amount shipped to Northern markets this may be we cannot at present say, but we think it can be little more than half. Our market is supplied by the Trent and Neuse rivers, and all raised in the country any considerable distance from the rivers, is hauled to market in carts and wagons.

We propose to investigate this matter a little more closely, and at the same time, to show the quantity of naval stores, lumber, shingles, &c., &c., shipped, and to give, from time to time, general statistics of our trade and commerce.—Newbern Commercial.

Agricultural Meeting in Bertie.

Pursuant to advertisement, a meeting of the citizens of Bertie county, in the State of North Carolina, was held in the town of Windsor, on the 14th day of November, 1866, for the purpose of considering measures for the promotion of the interest of the county.

Hon. David Outlaw was called to the chair, and William P. Gurley, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman in stating the object of the meeting said: "The call for this meeting states its object to be to consider measures for the promotion of the agricultural interest of the county. I understood the main object to be to invite Northern men to come among us with their capital and engage in agricultural pursuits—and especially to correct the erroneous impression said to be entertained, that those coming here would not be kindly received and well treated. I think I know the sentiments of the people of this county as well as any one, and I believe they would not only extend kindness and favor to such as may come among us, but that there is a universal desire for them to come and purchase or rent lands. While the war lasted, I desired as much as any one, the success of my own section; but now, North and South, we are one country, and ought to work together cordially and kindly for our mental profit.—There is scarcely any section of the country, where agriculture has been more profitable than in this county. The superior quality of the lands, and the facility for getting the products to market will render it profitable again, as soon as we can induce men of capital to come here, and assist us with their means in recovering from our present embarrassments."

A committee was appointed to prepare a set of resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, consisting of Hon. John Pool, Lewis Thompson, Esq., Col. Sam. B. Spruill, Wm. M. Sutton, Esq., and Etherton Wilson, Esq.

In reporting the resolutions proposed by the committee, Hon. John Pool said:

"This meeting has been advertised in every section of the county, and I see assembled here citizens representing every shade of political sentiment,—from those who left us and fought in the army of the Union, to those who were the first to volunteer in the army of the South. The survivors from both have returned to their old home to live together in peace and friendship, and have met here, to-day, with the most zealous friends and sympathisers of each, for the purpose of consulting together, and agreeing upon measures to repair, as rapidly as possible, the damage which all have sustained by the unfortunate and unnatural contest in which they were lately engaged. It was feared that disorder and frequent disturbance of the public peace would follow the termination of the war. But we, of Bertie County, have known of such things only from the reports of their occurrence elsewhere. Since the surrender of the Southern armies, there has been, in this County, no case of murder, robbery or arson, or other crime of high grade, and the petty misdemeanors have been less frequent than before the commencement of the war. Cases of petty larceny have been confined almost exclusively to the colored population. I shall not claim for the citizens of this County greater virtue or a better disposition than others possess. But their peaceable conduct during the last eighteen months is creditable to them. The purposes and spirit of this meeting are equally so. It may be partly owing to the necessity now, upon almost every one, to be industrious and frugal in order to obtain the means of living. Domestic industry has always been favorable to peace and virtue.—Idleness engenders dissentions and vice. We need capital and labor. Two thirds of the arable lands of this County, upon which immense fields of grain and cotton grew before the war, are now uncultivated. These lands are exceedingly fertile, and the facility for getting their products to market is unsurpassed.—The County is surrounded on three sides by navigable water, and the Cashie, running through its centre, is navigable for twenty miles up by any craft that can enter the waters of North Carolina. The city of Norfolk is only twenty-hours distant from this town by steamboat. With lands scarcely less fertile than those of Mississippi and Louisiana, and with such proximity to market, why is it that we languish for capital and labor? Why does it not naturally come and seek investment here? It is because of the fear that Northern men coming among us will not be cordially received and kindly treated. We know that such fears are groundless. I have heard the object of this meeting freely discussed, for a month or more, and I have not heard of a single dissenting voice in the County. There is a universal desire to have them come and settle among us and give impetus to our industrial pursuits.—All of us look to the influx of Northern labor and capital as the only means of preventing one half of our most fertile lands returning to the wilderness. Let us then, frankly and promptly, invite them to come, and pledge ourselves, as men and citizens, to assure them such welcome, assistance and protection, as might be expected in any well ordered Christian community. Our honorable and distinguished Chairman, than whom there was not a more warm and zealous Confederate in the whole South, has just expressed the sentiments of every one of us, in saying that 'North and South, we are now one country, and ought to work together cordially and kindly for our mutual profit.'"

Upon consideration, the meeting unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

The citizens of the County of Bertie, in the State of North Carolina, assembled in the town of Windsor, (without distinction of party, or political views, past or present,) for the purpose of consulting together upon measures to revive and promote the agricultural interests of the county, now greatly distressed in consequence of the late disastrous war, do agree to adopt the following resolutions, to-wit:

1. Resolved, That we do hereby invite to this county the aid of capital and labor from abroad, and especially from the North, and do hereby proffer to sell or rent at fair prices, a part of our lands.

2. Resolved, That we will extend to those who may come among us to engage in agricultural pursuits, such neighborly assistance, hospitality and social relations as to make them of us, as well as among us,—pledging ourselves to assure to them freedom from all annoyance on account of place of birth or political views, and to exert ourselves to diminish, as far as possible, those unavoidable inconveniences incident to the first years of a residence among strangers.

3. Resolved, That these resolutions, signed by the Chairman and Secretary, be printed and published, and that the individual citizens of the county are requested to disseminate them as much as possible in all sections of the country.

The thanks of the meeting were tendered to the Chairman and Secretary, and the newspapers of the State requested to publish the proceedings.

The meeting then adjourned.

DAVID OUTLAW, Chm'n.
WM. P. GURLEY, Sec'y.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"Dr. Gardner's treatment of the eye and ear is wonderful."—Richmond Enquirer.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
110 Goerick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

ROANOKE

LAND FOR SALE.

AS Attorney, I shall sell, on the premises, for Cash,

ON THE 26TH. DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1866,

At Public Auction, to the highest bidder, the celebrated plantation of

MR. T. P. BURGWYN, KNOWN AS

ALVESTON,

CONTAINING

1,200 Acres, More or Less,

lying in Occoneechis Neck, Northampton county, North Carolina.

This is one of the most beautiful plantations in the whole country, and is surpassed in fertility and productiveness by none in North Carolina. Most of it is high table land, a red soil, cleared and in a high state of cultivation. It is admirably adapted to the production of COTTON, WHEAT, & INDIAN CORN.

It is well stocked with negro laborers, the former slaves of the estate, who are attached to the place, and can be easily induced to remain by a prudent purchaser. It also has on it several very good white tenants,—good and honest farmers—and is in much demand by this class of tenants. The Barns and Laborers' Houses are very good.

THE MANSION HOUSE

is sufficiently good. It is situated on the Roanoke river, below the head of navigation, and in the immediate neighborhood of four railroads leading to Norfolk, Petersburg, Wilmington, and Raleigh.—

A plantation of equal value has not been offered for sale in Northampton within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

J. W. MERRILL, Secretary.

The North America Life Insurance Company, from the day of its inauguration to the present time, has outstripped its colemporaries in growth and prosperity.

Its success is thoroughly attributable to the actual mutual benefit that it grants to the policy-holders, its liberal features, and the perfect security which it is able to guarantee to those whose money is placed with it.

NOTICE, that the North America grants thirty days' grace in payment of Renewals, while in other Companies all the money you have invested is forfeited if your premium is not paid by 12 o'clock, noon, of the day upon which it falls due.
